Dear Mr. Norfleet:

This letter is in response to your request for additional information, dated March 27, 2009.

1. The Senate Conservatives Fund has employed an outside firm to manage all receipts and expenditures related to the direct mail program. The outside firm did not provide the Committee with all of the information required to file a complete Post-General Report. This error was discovered while preparing the Year-End Report and the amended Post-General Report was filed at that time. The Committee has fully reviewed this vendor's ledgers and records, and has established firm procedures to prevent this situation with future reports.

2. All expenditures made for 'Direct Mail/Direct Mail Postage/Event Photography and Print Design' were made to specifically benefit the Senate Conservatives Fund. None of these expenditures were made on behalf of a specifically identified federal candidate. Senate Conservatives Fund is well aware of the regulations concerning disclosure of expenditures made on behalf of specific federal candidates and will properly disclose any such expenditures on future filings. The above referenced report has been amended to clarify these entries.

3. The independent expenditure disclosed on Schedule E of Line 24, made on behalf of Robert W. Schaffer, was made on November 3, 2008. This was not reportable as debt or by a memo entry on the previous report because it did not occur in that period. The above referenced report has been amended to specify the date of the independent expenditure.

Should you require further information, please contact us at any time.

Sincerely,

Lisa Lisker
Assistant Treasurer
